CWC@25
Empowering Children and Enabling Adults

About CWC

The CWC is proud to celebrate 25 meaningful years as a pioneering organisation in the field of children's rights and civil society participation with an emphasis on children's participation. As a secular, democratic, national, private development agency, CWC is the first organisation in India to work exclusively on issues of child labour and children's rights.

Over the years it has formed very strong partnerships with children's own organisations, youth organisations, women's organisations, local governments, national and international agencies to create, nurture and sustain an environment where children are considered as citizens of today.

Our Programmes

Gramashrama: CWC's rural project, presently works in 4 rural districts and in over 70 Panchayats in order to evolve a child centered, comprehensive development paradigm in partnership with children, women and other stakeholders.
CWC's Regional Training Center, Namma Bhoomi provides Vocational training for former child workers in order to empower them and to enhance their professional skills.

Ankur activists work towards the empowerment and mobilisation of working children, their families and communities in the urban areas.

The Center for Applied Research and Documentation (CARD) aims to consolidate the work experience of the CWC, its constituencies and other grassroots organisations into transferable forms of information.

The programme Samvada enables children to access the spaces and tools to advocate for their issues. It also attempts to keep all the issues that are central to CWC alive in the public domain in order to inform and influence programmes and policies.

Dhruva, The Training and consultancy unit of CWC, has successfully provided capacity building inputs to the Government of Mongolia, Government of Netherlands, Government of India, international agencies such as the Save the Children Norway, UNICEF, ILO, World Vision, Kinder, Not Hilfe etc.

Pattabhirama Reddy has produced and directed the groundbreaking 'Samskara' in Kannada, which won the President’s Gold Medal in 1971 and the Bronze Leopard at the Locarno International Film Festival.

Devarakadu, a film by Pattabhirama Reddy, is the winner of India’s National Award for Best Environmental Feature Film 1994. This is a story of the forest and of the tribe’s (indigenous people) symbiotic relationship with the forest.

Taking destiny in their hands

Directed by: Kavita Ratna
Edited by: Nikhat Aslam
Produced by:
The Concerned for Working Children, India
CIDA Canada
ITALIANATS, Italy

Spanning three continents, and a period of over three decades, the film depicts how the similarities of the movements form their foundation and how their diversities bring rich nuances to their struggle. The title of the film has been quoted from the Mayor of Berlin, Harald Wolf’s address to the International Movement in Berlin, and reflects how adults and those in power are increasingly recognising that there is much to be learnt from children’s protagonism and its impact on the society.

Duration: 45 minutes
