

Author Agreement

Below is the outline for the publication, copyright, and dissemination protocols for NEOS. Upon completion of the initial review process, authors are required to review, sign, and submit this agreement before publishing with NEOS. Please contact the NEOS editorial team at ACYIG.editor@gmail.com with any questions.

By submitting their work for publication in NEOS, authors agree to the following terms:

- 1) Any submissions to NEOS must be original work that is neither under-review elsewhere nor previously published.
- 2) If the article or any artwork therein has been previously published in whole or in part, permission must be obtained to reproduce such content in NEOS.
- 3) Final publication in NEOS will require undertaking edits proposed by reviewers and/or the editorial team. Authors understand that failing to submit satisfactory revisions within the required timeframe specified by the editorial team will result in a manuscript rejection, and a new submission will be required for future consideration.
- 4) Manuscripts must be prepared in adherence with NEOS guidelines (see “Author Submission Guidelines” for details); failure to comply with NEOS guidelines will result in the manuscript not being sent out for review and/or rejection for reviewed manuscripts that fail to satisfactorily comply with guidelines.
- 5) Fulfilling the NEOS mission to provide timely, open-access publication of the latest research on childhood and youth requires quick turnaround timelines of less than eight weeks from submission to publication. Authors must commit to prompt communication with the editorial team throughout all stages of the submission process and completion of required revisions by specified deadlines.
- 6) Authors retain copyright privileges and grant NEOS right of first publication.
- 7) Authors agree to notify the editors should they discover any significant inaccuracies or errors after publication, cooperating fully with any necessary amendments or retractions in order.
- 8) Authors may distribute work published in NEOS through other means, including through contracts with other publications. Republished versions of work first published in NEOS must include acknowledgment of initial publication in NEOS.
- 10) ACYIG and NEOS reserve the right to share NEOS content through social media and other dissemination platforms. The personal information of authors will otherwise not be sold or distributed.
